

UPCOMING EVENTS

All Concerts at 7:30pm unless otherwise noted.

Members $3 non-members $5

Sat Mar 06 • Steve Brosky and Jimmy Meyer - Roots rockers from Allentown, PA with guitar licks and lyrics that stay with you like the way your clothes smell the morning after a really good night out.

Sat Mar 13 • Tripping Lily - Touted as fresh, energetic, and alive, Tripping Lily's pop-rock groundwork is cross-fertilized with folk music and cutting edge vocal harmonies. The band's unique ability to absorb traditional music while speaking to the here and now is proof of their versatility as contemporary musicians.

Sat Mar 20 • Sarah Donner - "Donner...has her own distinctive, half-spoken, half-sung, all-quirky style. She sings with a highly expressive, conversational demeanor, employing well the nuances of the language and an ability to change her dynamics to induce a sense of drama in her songs...She projects an air of serenity and intelligence." -Kevin L. Carter

Sun Mar 21 02:00 PM • The Honey Dewdrops - "Their music, recognized for its tight harmonies and meaningful lyrics, echoes traditional American Folk styles while incorporating the modern sounds of country and rock music." Liz Barry - The Burg

Sat Mar 27 • Andrew McKnight - "With a voice reminiscent of Don McLean, McKnight traverses from old-time Appalachian tunes to contemporary folk and blues, all backed up by his dead-on guitar playing" — Denise Taylor, The Boston Globe

Sun Mar 28 02:00 PM • Mandolin Orange - Andrew Marlin and Emily Frantz pair guitar, violin and mandolin to compliment alluring lyrics and seamless harmonies. "The duo's voices and instruments fit alongside each other like Johnny and June Carter Cash ... Mandolin Orange embodies the same backwoods lovebirds aesthetic" (DailyTarHeel).
